

1 16th century timber-framed, but much altered

2 c.1860

3 Back half 16th century timber-framed; front half late 19th century

4 18th century; working smithy until 1940s

5 Early 19th century front; rear earlier

6 Late 19th century beyond is a 17th-century building, now timber-clad

7 Early 19th century

8 Late 19th century

9 18th century, but much altered

10 17th century, rebuilt in the 18th century

11 Late 17th century (date 1675 over main door)

12 Gothic Revival, 19th century; originally bakery and coal depot

13 Possibly 17th century, but much altered

14 19th century replacement for 16th century building

15 Parts are Norman, others later medieval or Tudor, the cupola on the tower is Georgian

16 Early 15th century, 192 feet long and 39 feet wide, the largest barn in Middlesex