

Collaborative
Learning Project

Introduction to Supporting Children New to English for Teaching Assistants

Workshop led by Judith Evans and Stuart Scott

Enabling Teaching Assistants to provide effective support for pupils who are in the very early stages of learning English.

Morning session: 10.00-12.30

Introduction to Language Acquisition,
Principles for Practice including use of First Language

Afternoon session: 1.15-3.45

Record Keeping and Evaluation,
Practical strategies and a guide to EAL resources and activities

This workshop is designed for teaching assistants who support pupils in Years 2 to 6 who are new users of English (ie within the first 18 months). They may also be of interest to Inclusion managers, EMA co-ordinators or those who oversee provision for EAL pupils.

12th June 2012 at Frank Barnes School for Deaf Children,
Jubilee Waterside Centre, 105 Camley Street, London N1C 4PF
(ten to fifteen minutes walking distance from Kings Cross/St Pancras. Shuttle bus available)

CLP is a non-profit making teacher network. We develop and disseminate tried and tested examples of effective group strategies across all phases and subjects. More information and a growing number of free activities can be downloaded from our website: www.collaborativelearning.org

Cost: £120 including buffet lunch and refreshments. Special offer to encourage partnership work: two participants from same school only £180.

Single sessions morning or afternoon £80 Please apply directly to CLP sending either a cheque or official order to:

Collaborative Learning Project, 17, Barford Street, London N1 0QB

Email: stuart.scott@collaborativelearning.org

Please include the following information:

Names of participants. Name and address of school. Email address and telephone number. Invoice and confirmation of places will be sent by email.