

EAL Pupils: From Exploratory Talk to Confident Writing at Key Stages 2 and 3

A workshop for EAL specialists, classroom and subject teachers and support staff.

Led by Sharman Bailey, Judith Evans and Stuart Scott

The aim of the workshop is to explore a range of strategies and materials for increasing exploratory talk, providing opportunities for presentational talk and encouraging confident and accurate writing. Participants will be able to try out a range of classroom activities and begin designing their own. These approaches are planned for EAL learners, but other learners will benefit too.

on Friday 15th March 2013 10.00am - 3.45pm
at Eyres Monsell Primary School, Simmins Crescent Leicester, LE2 9AH

Organised by the Collaborative Learning Project with the support of Eyres Monsell Primary School. The main aim of CLP is to develop and disseminate tried and tested examples of effective strategies across all phases and subjects. More information and a growing number of free activities can be downloaded from our website:

www.collaborativelearning.org

Cost: £120 including lunch and refreshments. Special offer to encourage partnership work: two participants from same school only £200!
Please apply directly to the project sending either a cheque or official order to:

Collaborative Learning Project, 17, Barford Street, London N1 0QB
Email: stuart.scott@collaborativelearning.org

Please include the following information:
Names of participant(s). Name and address of school. Email addresses and telephone number. Invoice, confirmation of places and further information for participants will be sent by email.