

LATE

YOU ARE INVITED TO THE 10TH

Harold Rosen Lecture

by John Richmond, introduced by Michael Rosen to mark the launch of

Harold Rosen: Writings on life, language and learning, 1958–2008

Edited with an introduction by John Richmond

at 5.00 pm on Monday

20th March 2017

in Lecture Theatre 1, UCL Cruciform Building
Gower Street, London WC1E 6BT

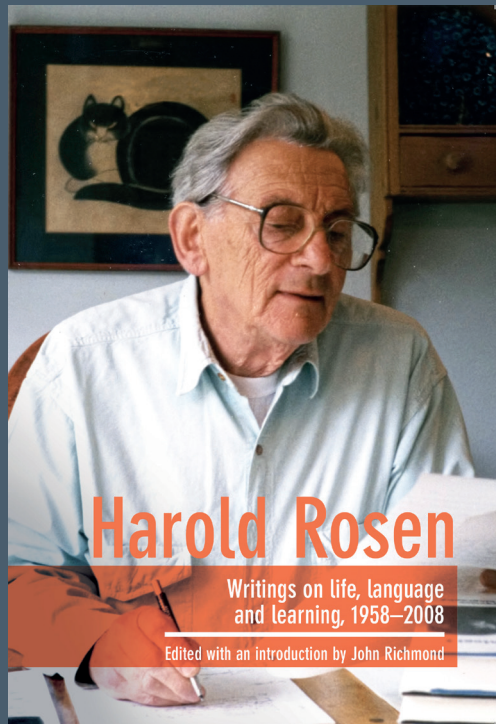

<https://darecollaborative.net/2014/07/10/the-harold-rosen-lectures/>

Drinks afterwards in the Cruciform Café, with the opportunity to buy the book at the reduced price of £20.00 (normal price £24.99)

RSVP by Friday 10th March 2017

Sally Sigmund s.sigmund@ucl.ac.uk tel. +44(0)20 7911 5565

‘Those of us who knew Harold will enjoy hearing his voice again; those who have not yet met him will relish the wit, incisiveness and principle of this remarkable man.’

– Eve Bearne, United Kingdom Literacy Association

‘A reader of this collection will appreciate the great contribution Harold Rosen made to education, language and literature.’

– Professor Neil Mercer, University of Cambridge

‘This is a most welcome bringing-together of the writings of one of the most admired and influential thinkers and doers in the world of English teaching and language education in the second half of the 20th century.’

– Professor Ronald Carter, University of Nottingham and Cambridge Language Sciences, University of Cambridge

John Richmond has been an English teacher, a local authority adviser, an officer on national curriculum development projects in the UK, and a commissioning editor in educational television in the UK and the USA.