Capital Cities Follow Me Activity

Developed for the teachers attending CLIL Humanities workshops this summer. It can either be worked on in small groups or a whole class with a card each can get themselves in line. Please send us your versions to share with colleagues on the CLIL website.

Collaborative Learning = Oracy in Context makes challenging curriculum accessible.

improves social relations in the classroom.

provides scaffolding for exploratory talk.

Good for all pupils!

Vital for EAL pupils!

Basic principles:

1. Build on prior knowledge.
2. Move from concrete to abstract.
3. Ensure everyone works with everyone else.
4. Extend social language into curriculum language.
5. Provide motivating ways to go over the same knowledge more than once.

If you can't talk it, you won't be able to write it!

COLLABORATIVE LEARNING PROJECT

Project Director: Stuart Scott

We support a network of teaching professionals to develop and disseminate accessible talk-for-learning activities in all subject areas and for all ages.
