

The Village that Vanished.

Ann Grifalconi
Kadir Nelson
Brilliant
Combination

Sequencing Activity

Ann died in April so here is a good reason to celebrate her work.

Kadir is currently producing spectacular artwork. Take a look at his New Yorker covers

The Village that Vanished.

Developed by Steve Cooke

Last updated 18th June 2020

Webaddress:

<http://www.collaborativelearning.org/villagethatvanished.pdf>

The Village that Vanished.

The Village that vanished.

G	Njemile told Abikanile that the slavers were coming.
D	Njemile told the village people about her plan.
B	Chimwala said that she would stay behind.
L	The village people took apart their houses and hid the sticks in the woods.
C	They buried their cooking pots, raked the field and left Chimwala in her hut.
K	The village people came to a wide river and looked for a place to cross it.
A	Abikanile prayed to the ancestor spirits to help her.
F	She saw the stepping stones and crossed the river.
E	The village people were afraid to cross the river but Njemile told them to follow Abikanile.
H	The village people made shelters and collected food.
I	The slavers asked Chimwala a lot of questions and she told them that she was a witch.
M	The slavers searched the woods near Chimwala's hut.
J	The slavers left Chimwala because they believed that there was never a village there

The Village that vanished.

The Village that vanished.

Njemile told Abikanile that the slavers were coming.

Njemile told the village people about her plan.

Chimwala said that she would stay behind.

The village people took apart their houses and hid the sticks in the woods.

They buried their cooking pots, raked the field and left Chimwala in her hut.

The village people came to a wide river and looked for a place to cross it.

Abikanile prayed to the ancestor spirits to help her.

She saw the stepping stones and crossed the river.

The village people were afraid to cross the river but Njemile told them to follow Abikanile.

The village people made shelters and collected food.

The slavers asked Chimwala a lot of questions and she told them that she was a witch.

The slavers searched the woods near Chimwala's hut.

The slavers left Chimwala because they believed that there was never a village there